HAUNTED

GHOST STORY READINGS FOR HALLOWEEN 2018

Local professional actors give live readings of ghostly tales by great writers of the genre including Edith Nesbit, Muriel Spark and Chaz Brenchley. Linking all venues is The Wall by Kate Clanchy, a contemporary tale of love and redemption set on Hadrian's Wall.

'Haunted' is a different kind of listening entertainment, ideal for curious adults and children over 11 who love fictional narratives exploring all aspects of the supernatural. Read in informal settings with the lights down low these atmospheric short stories have been specially chosen to match the function or setting of each venue.
